PUBLISHED WEEKLY IN CANAL POINT BY PAUL RARDIN

CIRCULATING THROUGHOUT THE VAST AGRICULTURAL AREA OF PALM BEACH COUNTY

RECENT OPERATIONS

By Paul Rardin

Have you seen Pat Carroll's poinsettias in Canal Point? So far this fall they are the prettiest ones in our midst. I've tried to grow some near our office but two hurricanes this fall and two the year before gave them a severe setback. At pruning time Pat will give you all the cuttings you want. You'll enjoy growing the beautiful red flowers from cuttings off these big, healthy bushes.

South Bay voters returned Mayor W. M. (Bill) Jeffries to office for another two year term in Tuesday's city election. Along with the mayor the voters named three entirely new council members. They are: I. P. Roberts, R. R. Roadman and Melvin Herring. The candidates for the third place were closely bunched with Herring receiving 96 votes, W. C. (Bill) Allen getting 95 and Councilman Carroll Warren tallying up 93. S. J. Fishler, a member of the present council, was eliminated in the running by his fellowtownsmen and was low man with 83 votes.

Handicapped Are Taken To School

Every morning, long before the sun is awake, Charles Baker is up and stirring and pounding down the road on the first lap of a daily 120-mile trip.

The big orange vehicle that he drives is plainly labeled "Palm Beach County Schools" and his hegebra is as reliable as the cook's crow. Baker starts out from Westgate, heads down the trail toward Lake Worth, into Lantana, all the way to Boynton, back again through West Palm Beach and Riviera Beach.

All during his course, he stops at carefully appointed stations to pick up children laden with schoolbooks and smiles. Some are leaning in wheel chairs, some are leaning on their crutches. Some have difficulty making out the bus's advent with their dimmed spectacled eyes. Some just wait, holding crippled arms in happy negligence close to their thin bodies.

Baker likes the kids and they like him. His daily 120 mile journey takes 42 wards to and from the Palm Beach County Crippled Children's Royal Palm School, now located in a big, cool white building at Morrison Field. These physically handicapped children come from all over the county and they go to school just like any other kids, but they are given the advantage of special curriculum.

Mrs. Margery Crick is the kind and competent principal of the school. Under her are six teachers, all vitally interested in the education of exceptional children. In addition, the school makes use of a physio-therapist sent out by the Palm Beach County Crippled Children's Society on Royal Palm Way, where the clinic part of the project is maintained. —From Tiff's Town and County.

Florida East Coast Railway Assigns Diesel-Electric Engines To Glades

Six branch line Diesel-electric locomotives have been purchased by the Florida East Coast Railway for use in freight service on its Cut-off and branch line to the rich Lake Okechobee agricultural district. Four of the new Diesels have already been delivered and placed in operation. Two more will be received shortly.

Costing approximately $144,000 each, the new locomotives are rated at 1,500 horsepower apiece, and are designed for both switching and branch line road service. They will entirely supplant steam power on the Florida East Coast Railway's Okechobee branch and new 30-mile cut-off between Fort Pierce and the Lake.

Empty cars are being hauled by these Diesels from Fort Pierce to producing centers in the Glades, and there spotted for loading. On their return trip, the Diesels pick up loaded cars and bring them over the cut-off to Fort Pierce, there to be assembled into trains for prompt movement over the double track main line to northern markets. They will also be used to haul sugar cane grown in the rich Glades mucklands, a movement totaling some 30,000 cars a year.

Among the advantages of these electric-driven locomotives is virtually "finger-tip control". They can be coupled to cars with greater ease, eliminating heavy impact shocks. They accelerate and decelerate more rapidly, and do not require stops at intervals for water, which is the case with steam power.

The Lake Okechobee district, now served by these modern Diesels, is one of the leading winter vegetable and sugar producing areas in the United States. This season it is estimated that approximately 13,000 carloads of winter vegetables will be moved from this district. Chief products are celery, beans, cabbage and potatoes, although winter-grown lettuce, radishes, cucumbers, eggplant and other delicacies frequently move in carload lots.

At the Glades subdistrict meeting of the Methodist Youth Fellowship held at the Community Methodist Church in Belle Glade Tuesday night the Canal Point MYF was represented by 11 members and the Pahokee unit, by 9.

Jensen Says Pahokee P. O. Open Saturdays

The Pahokee post office will remain open Saturday afternoon, Dec. 11 and Dec. 18, according to an announcement this week by the postmaster, E. A. Jensen. This is done in an effort to better serve patrons during the rush holiday season.

Conservation Group To Name Delegates

There will be an election of community committeemen and delegates to the Palm Beach County Agricultural Conservation Association in the Glades area on Friday, Dec. 17.

In the North Glades area the election will be held at 10 a. m., Dec. 17, at the Pahokee City Hall. For the South Glades area the election will be held at 2 p. m. in the Sanders Building in Belle Glade. Three committeemen and one delegate will be elected at each meeting.

All farmers who have signed up under the 1948 program will be able to vote. County Agent M. U. Mounts urges as many as possible to participate in the election. On Dec. 18 at 10 a. m. the elected delegates will meet in the court house to form a county committee which will formulate the policy for the next year of the county program.

The present committee is composed of Chairman E. F. Froelich, R. L. Braddock and A. R. Harrington.

Barbara Wroten Is FSU Band Member

Miss Barbara Wroten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wroten of Pahokee has been selected as a member of the University Symphonic Band at Florida State University, Tallahassee, where she is attending school. A concert by the band was broadcast on Thursday night of last week.

Mrs. W. H. Rogers, Mrs. Duke Tucker and Mrs. Maxine Joyce spent Thursday in Vero Beach as guests of Mrs. Joyce's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Talton Joyce.

Local P. O. To Stay Open Saturday P. M.

Canal Point Postmaster Osceola Upthegrove said yesterday that the local post office will remain open on Saturday afternoons until Christmas in order to expedite Christmas mail. He also said that the office will remain open during the noon hour.

Woman's Group To Change Its Year

Members of the Pahokee First Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service at a meeting at the church Monday afternoon voted to change the fiscal year of their organization from Jan. 1—Dec. 31 to June 1—May 31 to coincide with the fiscal year of the church. A budget of $383.00, covering WSCS commitments for the first five months of 1949 until the new fiscal year starts, was submitted by Mrs. I. J. Frasure, Jr., treasurer, and accepted by the group.

Mrs. John A. Dulany appointed Mrs. R. F. Hurt, Mrs. Louis Davis, Mrs. Frank Ropelle and Mrs. R. J. Schroder on a committee to select candidates for these WSCS life memberships to be awarded at the next meeting, one candidate to be chosen from each of the three circles. It was announced that three life memberships will also be presented to the Spencer, Cushman and Frasure infants.

Reports were given at the meeting by Mrs. Hugo Bae, on the WSCS district meeting held last month in Miami; by Mrs. G. W. Byrd, on the Interdenominational Migrant Committee meeting held in Belle Glade; by Mrs. E. Elliott, on the mission study of China which she recently presented the Senior and Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship, and by Mrs. J. V. Thomas, on Christmas gifts being sent by the students committee to members of the church who are attending college or are serving in the armed forces.

Mrs. R. F. Hurt outlined plans for an advanced program to be held at the church Monday, Jan. 3, at 8 p. m. Mrs. Dulany announced an educational seminary will be held in Belle Glade on Jan. 18 from 10:30 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. Mrs. L. J. Fraser and Mrs. Ronald Watson presented two chapters from the fall mission study text, "Newness of Life." Mrs. Aron Blakey announced that the study would be completed at the mid-week prayer service with Mrs. P. J. Schroder in charge.

For the devotionals Mrs. Blakey read the "Christmas Story" while Mrs. Orin S. Bacon, Jr., organist, softly played "Silent Night." The program was preceded by a 15-minute organ concert of Christmas carols presented by Mrs. Bacon.

NO MEETING

Pahokee Lions dispensed with their regular Tuesday luncheon meeting this week to observe annual ladies night at a dinner and special program of entertainment at the woman's clubhouse this Friday evening.

Jeffries Renamed Mayor of South Bay

Mayor W. M. Jeffries was re-elected and three new councilmen were chosen in a closely contested municipal election in South Bay Tuesday.

Unofficial returns reported by town officials showed Jeffries victor over his opponent by a vote of 115 to 97. In the council race I. P. Roberts was high man with 133; R. R. Roadman polled 104 votes and Melvin Herring emerged apparent winner of the third seat with 96.

Indicative of the close race, the tally showed W. C. Allen in fourth place with 95, and Carroll Warren with 93. S. J. Fisher was low with 83 votes.

A total of 213 votes were cast out of 250 registered.

Mrs. Jones Named PTA Treasurer

Mrs. Charles Jones was elected treasurer of the Canal Point Parent-Teacher Association at the December meeting held Monday night in the school auditorium with Mrs. D. L. Friend, president, presiding. The special election was held to fill the vacancy left by the recent resignation of Mrs. D. L. Hooks.

Mrs. Boyd Vorhees and Mrs. Friend gave reports on the State PTA Convention held in West Palm Beach last month at which the Canal Point PTA received a certificate of award for achieving a 15 per cent increase in membership. Mrs. P. P. deMoya read the national PTA president's message for the month.

The group voted to purchase girl scout handbooks for the school library. It was announced that the Canal Point Girl Scout Troop, sponsored by PTA, would conduct a sweets sale at the school on Wednesday at 2 p. m. The attendance award was won by Mrs. Maurer's fourth grade room.

On the program Mrs. Ralph A. Fuller delivered an inspirational address on "Building Character." Children of the fourth grade sang songs and danced the minuet. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Sorchie Baird in the absence of Dennis Friend, program chairman.

Following the meeting refreshments were served during the social hour by Mrs. J. P. Parker, Mrs. D. R. Hall and Mrs. Oscar Chastain, hostesses.

Pahokee PTA Will Present Christmas Program On Dec. 13

The Pahokee Parent-Teacher Association will present its annual Christmas program in the high school auditorium Monday, Dec. 13, at 8 p. m. Mrs. D. W. Cunningham, president, will preside at the brief business session and the program will be under the direction of Mrs. Tommie Lee DuBose.

Pet Show Success Held In Pahokee

The benefit pet show sponsored by Pahokee Girl Scouts on the lawn of the First Methodist Church Tuesday afternoon was an outstanding success. The scores of pets exhibited represented practically all the species in the animal kingdom including mammals, reptiles and fish, ranging from chameleon to hamster, but the two kinds of traditional pets, cats and dogs, were by far the most numerous.

H. L. Speer, assistant county agricultural agent, and Glen Abbing, local breeder of pedigreed cocker spaniels, acted as judges. Mr. Speer gave a talk on the proper care of pets and Mr. Abbing demonstrated the proper method of displaying show dogs.

Ribbons and prizes were awarded as follows: Pedigree dogs, Alfred Kahn, springer spaniel, first, Donna Lynn May, pointer, second, and Donald Pickett, cocker spaniel, third; mixed-breed dogs, Philip Dulany and Marian Enecks, first, Freddie Blakey, second, and Brenda Carter, third; cats, Ray McQuaig and Annette McIntosh, first, George Jordan, second, and Thelma Lowe, third; miscellaneous pets, Wayne and Bruce Boynton, kid goats, first; Annette McIntosh, hamster, second, and Faith Brown, raccoon, third.

The Girl Scouts wish to thank the following merchants and business men for the donation of prizes: Chandler's Sundries, Bolton's and Fletcher's Drug stores, Chastain's City Market, Hitchcock's grocery, George Belk, Jack Spencer and the Prince Theatre.

Lucy Jones Circle Has Holiday Program

Mrs. A. C. Santo presented a Christmas program at a meeting of the Lucy Jones Circle, First Baptist WMU, at the home of Mrs. Morris Baxter Tuesday. Others taking part were Mrs. Paul Tillery, Mrs. L. G. Alderman, Mrs. R. W. Hardaway, Mrs. Ralph Grimes and Mrs. C. L. Shirley.

Mrs. J. V. Chastain, guest of honor, led the devotionals and gave a brief talk. A Christmas offering was collected at the meeting for Miss Dorothy Thompson, Pahokee WMU protege at the Baptist Children's Home in Arcadia. Mrs. W. H. Rogers, chairman, presided at the business. It was announced that Mrs. Hardaway will be hostess at the meeting.

Bride's Shower For Betty Woodyard

The Pahokee Woman's Club building was the scene Tuesday night of a bride's shower honoring Miss Betty Woodyard, daughter of Mrs. S. A. Nall of Bryant, whose marriage to James M. Gibson of Canal Point will be an event on Dec. 28. Hostesses were Mrs. Audie Hooks, Jr., Mrs. Melvin Spooner, Mrs. Olaf Boe, Mrs. Jack Carr, Mrs. Earl Maxson and Mrs. J. T. Parker.

Poinsettias and tuberoses were used by the hostesses in carrying out a color scheme of red and white against a background of green. The lace-covered refreshment table had as a centerpiece an attractive arrangement of tuberoses surrounded by fern and was lighted with red tapers in double crystal holders. The bride's table, covered with a white lace cloth, was outlined with poinsettias.

Throughout the evening Miss Patsy Maxson played soft music on the piano. A contest prize was awarded to Mrs. Oscar Chastain. Each of the guests wrote her favorite recipe for the bride.

The bride-elect was assisted with the opening and display of the many lovely gifts by Mrs. Earl Maxson. Mrs. Jack Carr was in charge of the bride's book. Holiday cookies and ice cream were served as refreshments.

Good Yield Beans On Vann's Section Five

W. H. Vann of W. H. Vann, Inc., the man who has been shipping carlots of beans from the Lake Okeechobee Region since the good year 1925, has a nice piece of muck between Belle Glade and Pahokee—Section 5 to be more specific.

During the hurricane this fall the piece of land remained in tillable condition. While flood waters stood on thousands of acres in the Glades, workmen were busy replanting on Section 5. A beautiful crop was made and many of the beans sold at a handsome price.

One small plot of the section—18 acres—turned out a yield of 3500 hampers of tendergreens. This in any man's language is an excellent yield. Again Section 5 comes through with some sort of a record.

Mrs. M. I. Keen entertained with a wiener roast and outdoor party at her home Friday evening. Members of the Pahokee and Canal Point Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship were guests.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Yes Sir,
Insomnia's Contagious!

When Bud Swanson had trouble sleeping nights, and tried to get over it by turning up the radio full blast, he started an epidemic of insomnia all down the block!

Folks finally dropped a hint to Bud that he close the windows or turn the radio a little lower. Bud did—and that was the quickest cure for other folks' insomnia I've ever heard of!

Not that any of us object to the radio, or swing bands, or anything else that helps another person relax of an evening. (Myself, I like a glass of beer with a bit of cheese before I go to bed. I can't speak for you.)

From where I sit, good neighborliness means nothing more than simply respecting the other person's tastes and rights—without forcing your own tastes or opinions down his throat. And that goes for Bud's radio, my glass of beer, or whatever temperate pleasure you happen to enjoy.

Two Weeks Vacation For School Children

School children will have a full two-week Christmas vacation under the new schedule adopted for the holiday vacations by the county school board Tuesday.

On the recommendation of County Superintendent Howell L. Watkins, children will start their holiday vacation at the close of the school day Dec. 17 and will return to school Jan. 3.

Mr. Watkins urged return to the original schedule, which was changed following loss of school instruction days during the September storms, "because the lack of attendance in classrooms the last few days before the holidays will result in loss of State revenue."

The county system redeives funds from the State on the basis of student attendance, he explained.

He also said, "If there are any more days lost during the winter because of cold weather when schools may have to close, then that many more days will have to be added to the end of the calendar in June."

Births

B. E. Thompson spent a recent leave from the Army with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson, in Pahokee after completing his boot training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Fat Cattle Show To Be Discussed Saturday

Smith Hughes instructors and county agents from a ten-county area will meet at the Experiment Station in Belle Glade on Saturday at 10 a. m., according to Assistant County Agent H. L. Speer.

At the meeting plans will be discussed and made for the proposed fat cattle show to be held in the recently constructed showing ring at the Everglades Experiment Station. Classes for showing and prizes will be discussed at the Saturday morning meeting.

The show ring has been built by the state department of agriculture for use by South Florida counties. It should be understood that it has been built for all of the counties in this area and not for Palm Beach county alone, it was pointed out by the agent.

Race Dates Upheld By Supreme Court

MIAMI—Further protection of the state's horse racing revenue has been given by the recent Supreme Court decision upholding a 1947 legislative act which placed the allocation of horse racing dates on the basis of revenue produced.

The measure provides for a 120-day season of successive 40-day periods in the Dade-Broward area, with the track producing the most tax revenue receiving the first choice of dates for the next year. The track producing the next highest amount would have their choice of the remaining periods.

Under the former statute, the racing commission had the power to apportion the dates, regardless of revenue returned the previous season.

In adopting the new statute, the legislature decided the old arrangement was "unsound and unwise, and creates a condition of uncertainty which retards the natural expansion and development of this business and influences and affects the financial stability of the counties and state."

It was emphasized that "the operation of horse racing and pari-mutuel betting at horse tracks is a substantial business compatible to the best interests of the state, and taxes derived therefrom constitute an integral part of the tax structure of the state and counties."

In a suit filed by Gulfstream Park questioning the constitutionality of the act, the state Supreme Court ruled on November 19, 1948 that the statute was valid on the basis of public welfare and public interest involved.

Under the first application of the statute this year, Hialeah Race Course requested and was granted its usual middle 40-day period. Gulfstream Park requested the closing day period and Tropical Park automatically received the first period.

Hialeah has always operated the mid-January to early-March dates, and the track's right to this period has been recognized because of its record as a revenue producer, its longtime service to the state, its larger physical investment and its nationally-famous program of stakes races.

Gulfstream Park filed their suit in April 1948 and Hialeah filed a motion to dismiss in Circuit Court and upon denial, appealed to the Supreme Court for a decision.

4-H Girls Club In Regular Meeting

The Canal Point 4-H Club meeting was called to order by President Billie Nell Stokes. The pledge was given and then songs were sung. We had the roll call by the Secretary. The President asked for the minutes but they were not prepared. Old and new business was discussed. Names were drawn for Christmas presents for all the girls.

The sum of five cents was pledged by each one present to be used toward the purchase of a gift for Mrs. Michaud.

There were 19 girls present and one teacher. The president turned the meeting over to Mrs. Conner. After our work period was finished the meeting was adjourned.

Mrs. Pearson Honored By Canal Point WSCS

Mrs. O. E. Pearson, Miami district president of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service, was guest of honor at a meeting of the Canal Point WSCS at the church Tuesday.

Mrs. Pearson gave a talk on "WSCS Goals for the Coming Year." She was introduced by Mrs. W. P. Pope who was in charge of the program. Others taking part in the program were Mrs. D. R. Hall and Mrs. B. T. Vorhees.

Mrs. A. R. Harrington presented a Christmas worship service. Mrs. Pope Sears sang a solo and Mrs. Harlan Sears gave a reading. Preceding the meeting, luncheon was served at noon with Mrs. F. W. Cross, Sr., in charge of arrangements. At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served by Mrs. F. M. Wilson, hostess. Mrs. W. N. Veal, Mrs. Melvia Livingston and Mrs. Hicks were guests.

Members of St. Martin's Guild, Episcopal Church of the Holy Nativity, will hold their annual Christmas party at the home of the president, Mrs. C. T. Jackson, on Monday, Dec. 20, at 8 p. m.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

Seldom is such a distinguished cast of artists found in one film as is to be seen in "The Paradine Case," which is to be presented at the Prince Theatre, Sunday-Monday, and which has the highest endorsement of leading columnists, editors and film writers.

In the cast of "The Paradine Case" are Gregory Peck, Charles Laughton, Charles Coburn, Joan Tetzel, Ann Todd, Ethel Barrymore, Louis Jourdan, and introducing, (just from Italy), Valli.

"The Paradine Case" is an intense drama involving a murder mystery that should keep one in perpetual suspense throughout the filming. Alfred Hitchcock is the director of the drama, and it is certain that nothing was spared to give this picture the finest in theatrical talent for its presentation.

See you at the movies—Mal.

Stabilization Plan For Citrus Sought

ORLANDO — Responding to a plea from Commissioner Nathan Mayo that canners try to work out a price stabilization plan to aid growers resulted in the appointment of a special committee to see what might be done.

Pointing out that canned citrus juice is selling today at the same price as sparkling water, Mayo urged that a price of $1.25 per box on oranges and 85c per box on grapefruit, delivered to the canner, be established.

Asked to name the five men on the committee were: Nathan Mayo, Governor Caldwell, Governor-elect Warren, L. I. Recker, Auburndale, president of the Florida Canners Association, and J. Adams, Bruce of Tampa, vice president of the Canners League of Florida.

Mayo named E. C. Lindsey, Lakeland, president of the Lakeland Highlands Canning Co.; Warren appointed Muri Pace, general manager of the United Growers and Shippers Association; Caldwell named Tom Swann, of Winter Haven, president of the Florence Citrus Growers Association. Recker appointed D. A. Hunt of Lake Wales, president of the Florida Citrus Canners Cooperative. Bruce chose Logan Bloodworth, Cherokee Products Co., Ft. Pierce.

CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST
"GOD THE PRESERVER OF MAN" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, December 12.

The Golden Text is: "I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee" (Isaiah 41-13).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "How excellent is thy loving kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. . . . O continue thy loving kindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart" (Psalms 36:7, 10).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The divine Mind that made man maintains His own image and likeness. . . . All that really exists is the divine Mind and its idea, and in this Mind the entire being is found harmonious and eternal. The straight and narrow way is to see and acknowledge this fact, yield to this power, and follow the leadings of truth" (151 :23-24, 26).

ORLANDO—President Joe Dyer of Florida Airways has announced that the Company filed with the Civil Aeronautics Board, for effectiveness on December 1, 1948, a new tariff to provide for a 10 percent reduction on return portion of a round trip ticket when the ticket is purchased in advance.

A similar tariff revision has also been filed to become effective on December 15, 1948, on circular trip tickets to be used in connection with other airlines. In the first instance, the round trip reduction would be good over all the routes of Florida Airways, whereas, in the second instance, the journey may commence on Florida Airways and take a different route in returning to the point of origin of the trip.

Mrs. T. W. Knight and Mrs. Ralph Grimes sang several duets, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Dorothy Graham. A vocal trio, composed of Mrs. Fay Abling, Mrs. Amy Whidden and Mrs. Vann sang carols. Mrs. Abling also sang a vocal solo, "Indian Love Call," and Mrs. Vann, a solo, "Holy Night." The group singing of Christmas carols was led by Mrs. Abling.

It was announced that the club will hold its annual Christmas party at Cypress Lodge Friday evening, Dec. 17 with Mrs. Hazel Chastain, Mrs. Violet Hall and Mrs. Doris Sasser to act as hostesses.

Strayed From Home Child Found At Home

TAMPA—Deputy Glenn Turner, head of Hillsborough Co. Sheriff Culbreath's Missing Persons Bureau, became convinced recently that the first and best place to locate a purported strayed-away-from-home child is right in the home.

Parents anxiously called the Sheriff's Office and stated that their three-year-old boy was missing. One of the deputies was dispatched and upon arrival went over the case with the grieving parents.

On somewhat of a premonition, the deputy asked permission to look in the boy's bedroom. There, under the bed, sleeping with his dog, lay the boy.

The dog was the only one who objected, and quite vociferously, to the deputy crawling under the bed and retrieving the "lost" child.

Girl Scouts Hold Regular Meeting

Marine Corps Band At Orange Bowl Fete

MIAMI—For the first time in the history of the Orange Bowl Festival, a service band will be the center of the pageantry of this annual Florida fete.

The Parris Island (S. C.) Marine Corps Band, augmented by the Parris Island Drum and Bugle Corps, and aggregating over 80 pieces, has accepted an invitation by the Orange Bowl Committee to lead the King Orange Jamboree parade on New Year's Eve, and to participate in the pre-game and half-time pageantry on New Year's Day.

Led by veteran Marine Howard R. Parrett, the band will be followed in the parade by a Marine Corps color guard, composed of Florida Leathernecks, and a float depicting the colorful history of the Devil Dog.

It is estimated that between 300,000 and 400,000 spectators will see the New Year's Eve parade, and that close to 60,000 persons will witness the game and its pageantry the following day. The Marine Band will be the core around which 21 high school bands, with 1800 musicians, will furnish the music for the event.

Two-Year-Old Joins Commerce Body

JESUP, Ga.—This enterprising Georgia community claims the distinction of having the youngest Chamber of Commerce member of any town in the United States in the person of two-year-old Billy Harvey.

Evidence of what a live chamber of commerce can do for a community is shown in the accomplishments of this recently organized body, which is receiving the support of young and old alike and now boasts over 200 members.

Through its efforts it has secured a State Farmers' Market patterned after those so successfully operated in Florida, set up a smooth working housing bureau, sponsored a corn growing contest with liberal cash awards for grower contestants, set up a Merchants Council to pass on advertising schemes and solicitations and promoted a modern white way for the city of Jesup.

Sample Gift Boxes To Brokerage Firms

ORLANDO — Members of the Florida Express Fruit Shippers Association are sending sample gift boxes of oranges complimentary to various brokerage firms and investment houses who are members of the New York Stock Exchange, and the larger banks in New York and several other Eastern cities, it was learned today.

Mr. C. E. Myers, of Miami, president of the Association, who made the announcement, stated that the project is a gesture to acquaint the brokerage houses and their employees with really fine Florida fruit.

The gift boxes are scheduled to arrive all on the same day in order that the financial district may be really "Florida Express Fruit Conscious."

Over 200 Association members located in various citrus areas of Florida are cooperating in the advertising project and we "hope," said L. V. Conrath, secretary-treasurer of the Association, "that this program will encourage the giving of boxes of Florida fruit as Christmas presents to employees."

Farm Bureau Backs New Citrus Mutual

LAKELAND—Calling on citrus growers to get behind Florida Citrus Mutual and put it in operation as quickly as possible to prevent another disastrous season, the Florida Farm Bureau Federation threw its full weight behind the current membership drive in an effort to insure the start of actual operations by the first of the year. The Farm Bureau Federation, which has a large unit made up of citrus growers, at its annual convention at Gainesville, last week, urged all growers to complete immediately the organization of the Florida Citrus Mutual.

The Florida Farm Bureau thinks all the principal industry organizations ought to meet and try to get together on something to help the citrus industry. Merton L. Corey, organizing counsel for Mutual, says he would welcome such a meeting and hopes it can be arranged.

James Morton, who holds the dual role of chairman of the Farm Bureau's state citrus committee, and organizing director of Mutual, revealed here Saturday that the Farm Bureau unanimously endorsed Mutual at its convention.

The resolution calls on U. S. Senators Pepper and Holland, Governor Caldwell and Governor-elect Warren to summon the various industry organizations to a conference "for the purpose of reconciling the differences with in the industry so that we may put unanimous support behind Florida Citrus Mutual."

On Mutual, the resolution states: "We, the members of the Florida Farm Bureau Federation in convention assembled, urge Florida citrus growers to complete immediately the organization of the Florida Citrus Mutual, through which, under the Capper-Volstead Act, they may legally use practical measures to solve the problems of the industry."

Homer J. Clause will return this weekend from a trip to the Ocala National Park and North Carolina.

Legion To Assist In Delivering Baskets

Members of Fred and Percy Mansfield Post 90 at a meeting in the woman's clubhouse Monday night voted to assist the Lions Club in the distribution of Christmas baskets to needy families in the community.

Plans were made for a drive to increase attendance at regular meetings. Perry Duke will be in charge of the drive. Paul Tillery reported the benefit football game between colored teams from Belle Glade and Cocoa, sponsored on Lair Field recently by Post 90, a financial success.

The crowd, mostly students at 35c, pushed the total for admittance to $516.00. Cocoa was paid $80 and after expenses, including Uncle Sam's 20 percent, the remainder was 50 percent of the Legion and the Belle Glade team, each receiving around $150.00.

Rules Are Given For The Highways

MIAMI — A possible 250,000 American homes may be saddened this year by highway death or injury in motor vehicle accidents during this two week December period than any other similar period during the entire year, R. J. Finley, manager of the South Florida Motor Club, an affiliate of the American Automobile Association, said today.

Great care must be exercised during this dangerous holiday period by all persons who walk or drive, Finley declared, citing the fact that 3,100 persons were killed in the nation by traffic accidents during December, 1947. More than 100,000 persons were injured during the same month of last year.

The Christmas theme of "good will toward others" should be applied, along with common driving courtesy, the motor club official advised. He suggested the following sound traffic rules:

Christmas Rules For Drivers:
1. Give full attention to your driving—don't window-shop from your car.

2. Give pedestrians the right-of-way at intersections or when turning.

3. Drive at reduced speeds in business and residential sections.

4. If you drive, don't drink; and if you drink, don't drive.

Christmas Rules For Pedestrians:

1. Cross only at street corners.

2. Obey all traffic signals.

3. Cross streets quickly but alertly.

4. Wear something white at night, to help drivers see you.

Future Farmers Plan New Program

The Pahokee Chapter, Future Farmers of America, voted at its regular bi-monthly meeting Monday evening to participate in the U. S. Armed Forces assistance program to German Youth.

This movement, as explained to the FFA boys by R. L. Brooks, chapter advisor, is a U. S. Army sponsored exchange of letters between young people's organizations in America and German youth groups of similar age, sex and purpose. It is the opinion of American military personnel now stationed in occupied Germany that the ideals upon which the United States is based can be spread to German youth by this exchange of letters.

The Pahokee FFA Chapter also voted to set up eligibility requirements for members who may wish to go on a summer tour to be financed in whole or in part with funds from the chapter treasury.
